Parenting the Love and Logic Way® curriculum was developed by Jim Fay, Charles Fay, Ph.D., and Foster W. Cline, M.D., of the Love and Logic Institute Inc., in Golden, Colorado. Chris and Emily Scott are independent facilitators of Parenting the Love and Logic Way® curriculum. Neither are employees of the Love and Logic Institute.

This program is an educational resource for parents who are interested in increasing the quality of their parenting and who want to learn Love and Logic ® skills. This program is not intended to be a substitute for parenting or relational therapy with a professional therapist.

I understand that this parenting program is purely educational and should not be a substitute for formal therapy and that the facilitators may not be trained in mental health. I understand the program is designed to give me guidelines for parenting and that I am fully and solely responsible for the results and my use and my decisions regarding the information and skills taught in the program.
